

Women's Center Student Job Application

Name _____ Phone _____
Address _____ E-mail _____
Campus Box _____ Year _____
Major(s)/Dept. _____

For which position(s) are you applying?

How many hours per week would you like to work?

If you are an undergraduate student, are you eligible for work-study funds? Y N

If so, what is the split? 75/25 50/50

Are you available to work between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on weekdays? Y N

Would you be able to staff evening or weekend programs? Y N

Have you taken any Women's Studies courses? (not required for employment) Y N

Why are you interested in working at the Women's Center? If you are applying for a programmer position, what would you like to see happen in this programming area? (Continue on back if needed.)

What are your special interests? (circle all that apply) women of color issues      graduate and professional school women's issues      career issues      men's outreach      women's health mentoring/issues for first-year women      women's leadership      lesbian/bisexual issues      body image/eating disorders women's center library      writing/editing for VOICES magazine      rape prevention education      harrassment prevention domestic violence/relationship violence      women in science and engineering      office work      other (please list)

Do you have any of the following skills? (circle all that apply) dramatic skills      crisis intervention/counseling      magazine layout      computer skills for Macintosh: Word reception/answering phones      photography      Web page creation/maintenance      volunteer coordination      Excel graphic design (flyers, t-shirts)      facilitating group discussion      public speaking      writing/editing      PageMaker

FileMaker Pro

Are you involved in other campus or community groups? Which ones? In what capacity?

Do you prefer brainstorming ideas or putting them into action? Why?

What would you like to learn through your work at the Women's Center?

Have you worked in other University offices? Who was your supervisor? May we contact her or him?